

HAZELNUT

LOCALNUTLEG

Mediterranean region

Turkey

VARIETIES

MAIN VARIETY: Tombul.

It is considered the variety with highest quality, related to its elevated oil content.

OTHER TURKISH VARETIES: Sivri; Foşa; Çakildak.

FLOWERING

February

HARVEST

August

GEOGRAPHIC AREA

Grows in the Ordu-Giresun region, located in north of Turkey and on the coast of the Black Sea.

CHARACTERISTICS

They are marketed normally in shell and separated in three groups of calibre:

- Large (used for consumption raw or roasted, normally Tombul variety);
- Medium (used for paste);
- Small (used for oil).

PRODUCTS

- Raw (in a shell, shelled);
- Roasted;
- Paste;
- Oil;
- Ingredient in chocolate, sweets, biscuits, ice cream or breakfast cereals.

